

DR. HADIZA S. GALADANCI
(MBBS, MSc, DLSTM&H, FWACS, MRCOG, FICS)

- Bachelor in Medicine and Bachelor in Surgery (Ahmadu Bello University Zaria) MBBS
- Masters in Reproductive Health and Sexual Health Research (University College London UK) MSc
- Diploma in London School of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene (UK) DLSTM&H
- Fellow West African College of Surgeon FWACS
- Member Royal College of Obstetrics and Gynaecology MRCOG
- Fellow International College of Surgeon FICS

Dr. Galadanci became a consultant in Aminu Kano Teaching Hospital (AKTH) and the Head of Department Obstetrics and Gynaecology between 2001 and 2005. She has published over 30 articles and attended several courses and conferences. She is the first female indigenous Gynaecologist in Kano State. An external examiner to five Teaching Hospitals and examiner to West African College of Surgeons. She is the first President of the Medical Women's Association of Nigeria, Kano state branch. She is a member of the PMTCT National Task Team, Vice President of the National Reproductive Health Working Group and Member of the West African Steering Committee on Reduction of Maternal Mortality. Dr. Galadanci is married and blessed with four children, three boys and a girl.