

Dr Imran Oludare Morhason-Bello,

Senior resident of OBGYN unit of the University College Hospital, Ibadan Nigeria. A member of the Nigeria NASG Research Team

He has special interest in Reproductive Health with bias for Safe Motherhood and genitourinary medicine.

He has facilitated several Emergency Obstetric Care Service Training on Life Saving Skills for both the Medical Officers of Health and Midwives in Nigeria organized by international organizations such as United Nation Funds for Population (UNFPA), World Bank project and DFID.

He is also a National Trainer on Strategic Leadership and Management for Population and Reproductive Health in Nigeria.

Current General secretary of the Nigerian Medical Association, Oyo state Branch.